

EINER

Tuesday January 21, 2020, by admin

EINER proposes a toolbox based on machine learning and AI that, combined with underwater video monitoring, provides automatic fish counting and fish identification. This solution eases and reduces the cost of data acquisition on fish passages that are sought by hydroelectric plants, NGOs, and fish migratory scientists.